January 2012

1. Conditions of participation

You state that medically there are no objections to your carrying out surfing. Everyone may participate under following requirements: able to swim, sportive and physical healthy.

2. Conclusion of a travel contract

The registration by the participant is obligatory. It will be carried out also for all in the registration specified participants. The registering person accounts for their duties as well as for his own. The contract comes off with the confirmation.

3. Changes of the achievements

We expressly reserve the right to make changes in the achievements specification in case of essentially entitled, substantial and not foreseeable reasons.

4. Resignation by the customer

The customer may withdraw at any time before start of the journey. Once the customer does participate on the course and leaves before the finish of the booked journey – Zopilote surfcamp will charge for the complete duration of the booked time. It is your responsibility to check the current travel conditions before departure to Costa Rica.

5. Reservation

Upon making a booking at Zopilote Surf Camp you agree to pay a deposit of Euro 200 / person of your booking. Upon arrival at the surf camp you are responsible to pay the remaining value of your booking. This payment is to be done in cash.

You may cancel your booking up to 60 days and get back your deposit minus 20 Euro handling fee. If you cancel your booking less than 60 days in advance or in the event of a no-show you can not claim you deposit back. Your non-arrival by the agreed date will result in the cancellation of your entire reservation.

6. Liability

We are responsible for a conscientious preparation and execution of our camp program. All participants are responsible for themselves and their insurance. Zopilote surfcamp is not liable for any damage and injuries. We recommend a private insurance (health travel insurance,...) during your journey.

Every participant has to pay for damages done to our surfcamp belongings, e.g. snapping a surf board. We have the right to throw out any misbehaving participant.
